PREZI – Unusual Presentations

Course code: PREZI1

The course makes participant familiar with the increasingly popular modern presentation technology. In the course we will introduce the environment, the possibilities of this presentation platform, licensing, transfer of existing presentations to PREZI, use templates to create new presentations, as well as presenting the result to the audience.

Who is the course for

For all users who need to present their ideas and work results, interested to the PREZI platform as an alternative to

Microsoft PowerPoint application and want to take all adventages of this instrument.

Required skills

Common knowledges of Windows and web. But is required to have an account on prezi.com (any kind).

Teaching materials

Printed handouts.

Course outline
- licencing
- types of presentations
- basics of creating presentations
- builing of story of presentation
- types of frames &their options
- basics of animations, objects grouping
- using of layers
- possibility of import of PPT slides
- offline content &presentation