NIS2 - Network and Information Security 2

Course code: GOC240

Two-days instructor-led training introduces the technical and administrative requirements of the european directive NIS2

Student materials

Our own student materials in printed or electronical form

Course outline

Current and future legislative requirements of NIS, NIS2 and Czech or Slovak kybernetic laws

Controllers, processors and their requirements

Information asset management

Threat and risk analyses

Required and reasonable administrative controls

Technical/logical controls required and good to implement

IS event and IS incident management

Contact with and reporting incidents to authorities

Acredited CSIRT/CERT/CIRT organizations

Detailed topics such as availability, confidentiality, integrity and their controls, such as user authentication, identity management, data and communication encryption, backup, restore and recovery, people security, secure design and development, security testing, logging, event and incident management, cryptographic controls, physical security

Relationships with ISO 2700x:2022

GOPAS®